

BPV JÁDI NÉMETH BOOSTS PRACTICE WITH NEW PARTNERS

bpv JÁDI NÉMETH Attorneys at Law is pleased to announce that Dr Bálint Bassola, LL.M. has joined the law firm as a partner. Dr Bassola is a highly recognized and experienced professional for competition and antitrust matters. The law firm also boosts its banking & finance as well as the regulatory practice with promoting Dr Péter Garancsi, LL.M. to partner.

Dr Bálint Bassola, LL.M., who has been ranked by the prestigious Chambers & Partners 2013 as a 'Leading Individual' in the field of competition law in Hungary shall lead as partner the EU, competition and antitrust practice areas at bpv JÁDI NÉMETH Attorneys at Law. Previously, he worked at Salans (now Dentons) and as a Case Officer at the Hungarian Competition Authority. Dr Bassola received his law degree from Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest and his LL.M. degree from the College of Europe (Bruges). He also holds a Diplôme Interdisciplinaire des Etudes Européennes from the Université Robert Schuman de Strasbourg. Dr. Bassola has published numerous articles and is a sought after speaker at national and international conferences and seminars.

Bálint Bassola commented this change in his professional life as follows: "I am glad to join this highly successful law firm. I am looking forward to working on high profile cartel cases and mergers and to cooperating on cross-border competition matters with bpv LEGAL lawyers in Brussels and in the CEE region. My goal is to further strengthen the competition law practice of bpv JÁDI NÉMETH Attorneys and make it to a point of reference in Hungary."

Dr Péter Garancsi, LL.M. gained comprehensive experience in negotiating transactions and heading teams in several legal fields, including domestic and cross-border M&A, energy law, regulatory, finance and commercial law. His sector specific experience features inter alia industrial machinery, fuel/gas & electricity, agriculture, infrastructure, telecommunications, aviation and retail. The comprehensive directory of law firms, The Legal500 recommends him as a recognized expert of the corporate/M&A practice area. Before joining the firm, Dr Garancsi has worked at Freshfields, Bruckhaus, Deringer (now Oppenheim) and at LUTHER Rechtsanwälte. Dr Garancsi graduated from the University of Pécs and obtained his LL.M degree in international business law at the Central European University (CEU) in Budapest. He regularly lectures and publishes both in Hungary and abroad.

Dr Péter Garancsi said: "I am delighted to make partnership at such renowned and forward-thinking law firm as bpv JÁDI NÉMETH. Our Budapest team and the whole bpv LEGAL Alliance we form part of, embrace a most contemporary and progressive attitude to legal services in the CEE region. I look forward to building on this strong platform and continue success over the coming years by promoting an apt, client-responsive and competitive new model of practicing business law."

Managing Partner Dr Andrea Jádi Németh, LL.M. commented: "Peter has already earned a strong reputation for our law firm for high quality work and great client service. Bálint will be an exceptional addition; he immediately enhances that reputation, so we can add both scale and scope to our practice. Having these two partners on board is a testament to our commitment to build a uniquely qualified, highly skilled team that can handle the most complex, high-stakes assignments for our clients."
