

bpv BRAUN PARTNERS scored by IFLR 1000 as a recommended law firm for financial law in Czech Republic and Slovakia

IFLR 1000 – The Guide to the World’s Leading Financial Law Firms released its 2019 recommendations in early November, listing bpv BRAUN PARTNERS as a recommended firm.

As in previous years, bpv is listed as a major firm in banking and mergers & acquisitions. IFLR quotes clients as follows: “We hired bpv Braun Partners as we were impressed by their engagement and enthusiasm, and they applied the same attitude we were expecting from them. We have been pretty impressed by their professionalism and deep knowledge of legal issues, but also their flexibility and tremendous value for money. The firm was responsive, easy to work with and able to deliver the requested legal works in a short time. We are very satisfied with the work provided by bpv Braun Partners and we would recommend them to anybody else.”

The publication also mentions Igor Augustinič, the partner in our Slovak office, as a leading expert in Mergers & Acquisitions and Banking.

The IFLR 1000 has been giving an overview of leading financial law firms since 1990, currently covering more than 120 jurisdictions around the world.
