

PRESS RELEASE

Date: August 26, 2016

Arthur Braun confirmed as managing partner of bpv BRAUN PARTNERS for another 3 years

The partners met on August 15 and confirmed Arthur Braun in his position as managing partner of the law firm for another three years. Arthur Braun became a founding member of bpv Braun Partners in 2006, prior to which he worked in economically oriented offices in Prague since 1994. He also currently leads the international alliance bpv LEGAL.

Arthur Braun describes his goals for the next three years as follows: “Even with two record-breaking years in terms of economic indicators behind us, our firm still has more than enough challenges ahead. The legal services market continues to develop quickly and our clients’ needs are changing just as fast. We have to be ready to meet those needs, whether that involves acquiring the necessary technology, training our employees or simply remaining responsive and ready for action. One thing will never change, however: our commitment to quality, integrity and providing the best possible services to our clients.”

“We are planning to take on more partners in the next three years, and our Bratislava office will be taking advantage of its potential for growth by providing advice in energy law, litigation and German law,” he concluded.
